Danna Hailfinger joined us as our IB MYP Coordinator in 2018, looking to support and continue growing the meaningful and rigorous learning occurring at Hughes. Prior to her time at Hughes, she taught World Geography in Arlington and DC public schools, utilizing concept-based curriculums and IB MYP rubrics to grow students' understanding and engagement in the world. In her time at Hughes, she supports the development of IB Learner Profile Traits through monthly student lessons, works closely with our teaching teams on concept-based units and authentic assessment, and assists with the implementation of service learning throughout the building.
